Chennai-15.

2. On direction of this Court, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has sent notice to the third respondent by registered post. The learned counsel for the petitioner has produced the returned cover and also filed an affidavit stating that the registered letter was refused by the addressee, viz., third respondent.

3. Taking note of the limited relief prayed for, we are of the view that there is no need to keep the writ petition pending. The learned counsel appearing for respondents 1 and 2 reports that pursuant to the complaint of the petitioner, action is being taken against the third respondent.

` 4. The above statement is hereby recorded. We also direct the first respondent to dispose of the representation of the petitioner dated 31.08.2006 in accordance with law within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that if any action is taken against the third respondent, she must be given an opportunity to putforth her case.

5. With the above direction, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
